

NOELLE KELLEY

My name is Noelle Kelley and I am from New Orleans, LA. I am a Louisiana State University graduate with a Bachelor of Science in Textiles, Apparel Design, and Merchandising. Throughout my studies at LSU I have studied abroad at the Paris American Academy in Paris, France and in my junior year I placed first for my three look collection. After graduation I plan to pursue a career in fashion design and will continue to chase my ultimate goal of running my own namesake label in ready-to-wear fashion, a further development of my current design persona, Stargirl. My brand Stargirl is the embodiment of my own inscrutable journey upwards toward the stars.
